

SILVER EAGLE

HOUSTON

To our Veterans and military spouses,

At Silver Eagle Distributors Houston, we deeply appreciate the sacrifices made by all our Veterans and we owe you gratitude and respect for your service and commitment to keeping our country strong and secure.

Every day we renew our commitment to honor all the men and women who volunteered their service and their lives to defend our freedom. To show our commitment, we pledge to:

- Provide employment opportunities and career development programs for military personnel and Veterans by actively recruiting from the military community.
- Present a support system and resources for accessing information like financial guidance, mental health support, and educational opportunities.
- Engage with military and Veteran organizations by participating in events, programs, and initiatives that support the military community.
- Actively seek collaborations with our suppliers or other organizations that share our commitment to serving the military and Veteran community.

We understand that this commitment requires ongoing dedication and effort, and we pledge to uphold these commitments throughout our operations, continuously seeking ways to improve our support for the military and Veteran community.

Thank you for bringing your talents to Silver Eagle Houston and being committed to our values of fueling growth and honoring tradition.

John Johnson
President

